Airframe Plant Chkalov No 84 consists of 2 plant areas: Airframe Plant Chkalov No 84A ( ) and Airframe Plant No 84B. This report concerns only plant 84B. Airframe Plant 84B is located in the eastern section of the city and adjacent to Tashkent Airfield.

Between ( ) several important developments were observed at the plant. The most significant of these was the identification of 2 COCK (AN-22) aircraft, one located at a new flyaway field 2.5 nm east of the plant and the other approximately 95 percent assembled and situated in the plant area. The field was under construction in ( ) (NPIC/R-169/63). The presence of the 2 COCK has made it possible to confirm plant 84B as the production site for this aircraft. Other developments include the addition of a large aircraft test revetment, a subassembly building, a machine shop/workshop, a warehouse, and 2 hangars. All of the buildings are in various stages of construction and provide the plant with approximately 800,000 square feet of floorspace. On ( ) 2 COCK (AN-22), 3 FAGOT/FRESCO, 22 CUB, 8 CRATE, 6 CAB, 2 HOOP, 2 HOUND, and 3 small straight-wing aircraft were observed at both the plant and the new flyaway field.
